

103" Touch panel

The 103" Touch-Overlay uses optical imaging touch technology to achieve unprecedented accuracy, easy of use to touch enable large displays or projection screens. This allows companies to develop effective tools for teaching and presentation in classroom, conference or boardroom environment. You can operate writing, drawing and presentation software simply by moving your finger across standard mouse functions are supported - click, right-click, double-click and drag. You can move/edit objects and scroll through menus. You can use any software, such as a spreadsheet or animation, and operate the program by screen. In addition, high-quality, specialised interactive whiteboard applications are readily available

- Touch-controlled mouse functionality over the whole screen.
- Light touch - no pressure required.
- Any touch method can be used - finger, gloved hand or pointer.
- Front or rear projection.
- Plug-and-play USB connection.

The 103" Touch-Overlay includes the following components:

- Touch frame
- USB cable
- Power supply unit
- Instructions
- Multitouch demo software and API

HoloTron
Via Gardella,4 - 20014 - Nerviano (MI)
Telefono: +39 0200614645
Fax: +39 0293660961
www.holotron.net

Show Room
Via Repubblica,43
20030 - Seveso

Visita solo su appuntamento